To submit, go to the congress website at <http://euraac2020.com/> and follow the instructions. The congress website has all the up-to date congress details, including registration and accommodation. You are encouraged to make your arrangements to take advantage of 'early bird' prices.

Registration fee includes access to all scientific sessions, program and book of abstracts, symposium documents, Welcome cocktail, daily refreshments and lunches.

The Welcome cocktail will be held at Villa Larocca, on Monday 13th July, 2020 evening.

The Gala Dinner will held at the Restaurant of the Circolo Canottieri Barion (<http://www.canottieribarion.it/>), the seafront of Bari, on Thursday 16th July, 2020.

EurAAc fees of the past 4 years (10 €/year for active scientists, and 5 €/year for students and retired scientists) have to be paid to get the discount as EurAAc member. Payment has to be made on the Bank account of the European Association of Acarologists (IBAN FR76 1350 6100 0085 1484 8287 525 – Code BIC/swift AGRIFRPP835) specifying your name, status and years for which you are paying. Your payment will remain pendant until these documents will be received and verified. All EurAAc members will receive a payment confirmation via e-mail.

After visiting the congress website, please address any questions regarding registration, accommodation and on-line submission to the organising secretary (stella@meeting-planner.it).
